Republicans Open Drive To Break "Solid South"

POLITICS IN DIXIE WILL BE STUDIED 'VERY CAREFULLY'

Complete Reconstruction of Republican Party Machinery in South Foreseen by Party Leaders.

NATIONAL CHAIRMAN APPOINTS COMMITTEE

By Entire Change of Attitude, Hope to Break
for All Time Democratic Solidarity.

BY JOHN GLENNER,
United News Staff Correspondent.
Washington, January 30.—The beginning of a determined effort by the republican party permanently to destroy democratic solidarity in the south, which has existed since the civil war, is seen in the announcement that a committee has been set to work to study "very carefully and impartially" the political situation in that area.

Leaders forecast a complete reconstruction of the party's machinery in the southern states. The committee appointed by Will Hays, the national chairman, is composed of
C. Bascom Sless, congressman from Virginia; Earle Kinsley, national committeeman from Vermont; R. P.
Howell, national committeeman from Nebraska; C. B. Miller, ex-officio secretary, and Hays himself, as executive chairman. The committee, after an investigation, will make recommendations for changes in organization and apportionment of delegates to the next national convention.

Inspired at Convention.
The movement is in response to action taken at the Chicago convention. A resolution authorizing the appointment of the committee asked for information as to "how the republican party in the states of the south may be reorganized or constituted to make it a more effective agent for the spreading and recording of republican principles and electing republican electors." Belief was expressed that the "solid south" was more inclined to republican principles than its voters indicated. The suggested change in apportionment likewise is an outgrowth of a resolution adopted by the Chicago convention.
The object would be to "inspire and maintain substantial party organizations," and to "effect proper and necessary changes in the present apportionment of delegates in proportion to votes actually cast."

Would End Contests.
The republicans desire to eliminate the numerous contests from southern states that arise at every national convention, and purge the organizations in certain states of notoriously undesirable elements.
Southern representation at the conventions has long been the subject of friction, and criticism has been made of the manner in which southern delegations were elected and seated. There has been recent ment over what has been charged was negro control, and what has been said to be organization based wholly on patronage.

The republicans made inroads in

Engineer Is Hero When Fire Attacks Ship in Mid-Ocean

S. S. Nettuno Towed to Port,
After Fire in Engine Room Injures Three.

Norfolk, Va., January 30.—Three members of the crew of the Italian steamship Nettuno were landed at Newport News this afternoon by the Belgian steamship Kremlen and rushed to a hospital for treatment of severe burns sustained when fire broke out in the engine room of the Nettuno off the coast of Florida yesterday. One of the men, Lionadi Vioganni, the engineer of the Nettuno, is not expected to live.
A stirring tale of heroism on the high seas with Engineer Vioganni, of the burned vessel, in the principal role, was told today by members of the crew of the Kremlen. A feed pipe in the engine room of the Nettuno, an oil burner, burst last Wednesday and fire spread through the room endangering the lives of the two firemen, who were trapped therein, and threatening the whole ship. Vioganni, the third engineer, volunteered to go down into the engine room and cut off the flow of broken pipe and rescue the firemen. Fighting his way through the roaring flames, he reached the pipe and managed to stop the flow of the flames. As he reached the deck his clothing had been burned almost entirely from his body, and his flesh was raw from burns.
The Kremlen, bound from Galveston to Hampton Roads, received an emergency call from the Nettuno, and arrived when the flames in the engine room had been extinguished.

NETTUNO TOWED
TO PORT.

Jacksville, January 30.—The Italian steamship Nettuno, Captain C. Borsini, on January 29, was towed into this port today by the coast guard cutter Yamahachi after being stranded at sea.
Captain Borsini attributes the salvation of his ship to the explosion of her fuel oil tanks, which literally snuffed out the fire after it had burned unchecked for twenty hours.
The blaze originated in the engine room from a burning four days out from Port Arthur, where it had cleared on January 21 with a cargo of gasoline and fuel oil. At that time she was off the coast of Florida in the vicinity of Bermuda.
In a few moments the Nettuno was a seething inferno and the Captain Borsini stated that it did not seem possible for her to remain afloat but a short time.
For four days the crew was without food or sleep, but they fought the fire with great courage and wrecked the ship's engine room and cracked her steel decks and side plates and it appeared that no mortal aboard could survive.
Captain Borsini said he had experienced four years of war, had two ships torpedoed under him, and was injured by one of the explosions, but none of those experiences furnished the one from which he had just emerged.
The Nettuno is owned by the Italian States Railways, her home port being Palermo, Italy.

KIRKWOOD CHURCH MEMBERS PLEDGE FUND OF $13,415

It order to remodel Kirkwood Methodist church, $13,415 was subscribed by the congregation Sunday evening during a sermon by Rev.
Marvin Williams, pastor of Grace Methodist church, who was especially invited to speak.

Rev. J. L. Allgood, pastor of the church, states that remodeling of the church probably will begin in the spring. He states that the fund was oversubscribed, only $12,000 having been asked. There are about 425 persons in the congregation.

RAIL EXECUTIVES SEEK ABROGATION SHOP AGREEMENTS

Labor Committee of Association Decides Not to Ask Cut in Wages at Present.

EXPECT $300,000,000 SAVING IN PAY ROLL

Employers Claim Shop- men Are Paid Unjusti- fied Wages Under Na- tional Agreement.

BY ALEXANDER F. JONES,
United News Staff Correspondent.

Chicago, January 30.—Developments at the conference of the labor committee of the American Association of Railroad Executives Sunday were:
That a general cut in the wages of all railroad employees will not be asked of the railroad labor board at this time.
That, for the present, the railroads will direct their offensive against the national shop agreements, abrogation of which will be asked by the carriers in a statement to be presented Monday morning by Chairman W. W. Atterbury, vice president of the Pennsylvania road.
That the roads will attempt to knock approximately $300,000,000 off the annual payroll in the onslaught on the shop agreements. These agreements cover overtime and working conditions which net employees many millions annually.

Brotherhoods Not Affected.

It was generally agreed by the railroad men here Sunday that the demands of the roads on the board would not include requests that wages now paid members of the standard trainmen brotherhoods be reduced. The locomotive engineers, conductors, trainmen, locomotive firemen, and other trainmen are not directly concerned in this movement, it was said.
The roads are directing their fire against approximately 2,000,000 employees in the railroad shops, maintenance of way departments, signal-men, firemen and others and clerks.
There are about 425,000 shopmen, between 200,000 and 400,000 maintenance men.

CONGRESS FACES LEGISLATIVE JAM

Doubt Felt of Passing All Appropriation Measures, With Only Twenty- Eight Days Left.

Washington, January 30.—Congress tomorrow enters into the peak period of the session, with the important working days before the adjournment. The session will be a struggle to pass the appropriation bills and legislation jammed up in both senate and house.

The final money bills, the army and navy supply measures, with the diplomatic and rivers and harbors appropriations, are the bills before the house this week, while the senate plans to take up the postoffice and sundry civil measures. Republican leaders are beginning to be dubious of getting through all the appropriation bills and they express privately doubts of democratic cooperation.

To hasten action on the appropriation bills, the Fordney emergency tariff bill is to be given what republicans say will be its "last chance" in the senate this week.
Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, in charge of the tariff bill, tomorrow will ask unanimous consent for a vote, probably on February 15, and with expectations of refusal the republican leaders are prepared to present their cloture petition for a vote on Wednesday under the rules.

Failure predicted for both moves is to be followed, according to the republican managers, by sidetrack-ing of the tariff bill in favor of the postoffice and other appropriation bills and other legislation.

Naval disarmament also is to come up prominently in the senate this week. Senator Gerry, of Rhode Island, democratic member of the senate naval committee, is to address the senate tomorrow in favor of carrying out the present building program unless an international disarmament agreement can be obtained. The naval committee will take up Tuesday Senator Borah's

Wilson to Write Conference Book After March Four

Documents Now Being Collected for Historical Work on Peace Treaty.

Washington, January 30.—President Wilson is having collected and arranged for ready reference all papers and documents in his possession relating to the work of the Paris peace conference with a view to the preparation of a book on the peace negotiations.

The president, in making these preparations, it was learned today has accepted the volunteered services of Ray Stannard Baker, who was attached to the American peace commission. Mr. Baker during the past two weeks has spent several hours each day at the white house putting into shape all available data on the peace conference in the president's possession.

While it is not believed that the president contemplates beginning the actual work of writing or dictating the proposed book during the few remaining weeks of his term of office, it is understood that he has in mind the inauguration of real work upon it shortly after his return to private life. It is known that Mr. Baker has only undertaken the task of arranging the documents and that his duties do not include in any way the literary workmanship.

Friends of the president are understood to have urged upon him for some time past the desirability of recording from the viewpoint of an official American participant, evening of such monumental importance as took place in Paris during the peace negotiations. They have pointed out that one who played such a major role as he and whose decisions have later become the subject of such violent controversy, both in this country and abroad, could not afford to lose the opportunity of setting before the world the motives behind the many disputed decisions, as involve Shantung, Fiume, Danzig, the Anglo-Franco-American alliance and the Russian question.

President Wilson's recent refusal to accept $150,000 for a special magazine article has caused students of Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa., to urge him to reconsider and give them the money.

Appreciating the scruples which prompted him to reject, the student body, numbering 500, in a petition received here today, asked the president to go ahead and write in the name of education, and thereby help the college endowment fund.

The student body also asked that the white house as to what the president might do about it.

German Newspaper In Sarcastic Vein On Bergdoll Case

Frankfurt, Germany, January 30.—
The Frankfurt Gazette, commenting on the recent attempt to kidnap Grover C. Bergdoll and Isaac Stecher in Aachen, Baden, says today that the "wild west" methods of carrying out the law as practiced by sheriffs in the border districts of Kansas and Colorado are hardly suitable to Germany.

The newspaper requests outsiders to refrain from using German territory for such experiments and says it trusts the United States does not interpret the existing state of war between the two countries as "affording license for invading Germany or permitting its detectives to indulge in promiscuous revolver practice there."

Coblenz, January 30.—Carl Neuf and Frank Zimmer, the alleged American detectives who recently attempted to kidnap Grover C. Berg-doll, American draft evader, and Isaac Stecher, his chauffeur, in El-berbach, Baden, are said to have acted on their own initiative in their attempt to capture the two men.

So far as is known here the American occupation authorities have received no official instructions regarding the case and the detectives still are in jail in Elberbach.

PARDON FOR DEBS UP TO WILSON, SAY OFFICIALS

Washington, January 30.—Disposition of the case of Eugene V.
Debs, now serving sentence in the Atlanta penitentiary for violation of the espionage laws, now rests with President Wilson. Department of justice officials declared today.
The attorney general, after careful consideration of the matter, it was said, has prepared his recommendations for the president's attention. Their nature was not indicated.

The outcome of the Debs case, Attorney General Palmer said tonight, like all recommendations for pardons passing from the department to the white house, was an entirely confidential matter, not subject to discussion by the department.

REPARATIONS SUM MUCH TOO LARGE, WASHINGTON VIEW

Naming of Definite Amount Chief Cause of American Satisfaction Over Allied Action.

AMERICA HAS URGED SUCH ACTION ALWAYS

Even If Plan Is Modified Later, Step Is Felt For- ward One Towards World Stability.

BY LOWELL MELLETT,
United News Staff Correspondent.
Washington, January 30.—Now that the allies have succeeded in fixing a definite sum for Germany to pay by way of reparations, it can not be said that the American government, which from the first insisted upon the necessity for such action, is very greatly pleased. The feeling, primarily, is that the amount agreed upon is much too large. The chief satisfaction found in Saturday's action of the allied premiers is that it probably will prove a distinct step toward settlement of the issue between Germany and the allies. Washington does not regard it as an actual settlement.

The naming of a definite sum has been urged consistently by American financiers and American statesmen as necessary to the stabilization of world business and the tranquilization of world politics. America's economic experts at Paris held steadily to this view and were supported as far as possible by President Wilson. French refusal continued, however, and only gave way yesterday when the sum of $500,000,000 was agreed to. This, according to dispatches received from Paris, is really only the $250,000,000 which the Americans were willing to endorse as a proper sum, with the accumulated interest over 42 years.

American Idea.

As a matter of fact, this is not the case. The idea of the Americans in Paris, Bernard Baruch, Thomas W. Lamont and Norman H. Davis, was that the ultimate amount to be paid by Germany should be about $250,000,000. They would have

Text of Reparations And Disarming Note As Sent To Germany

Paris, January 30.—The document signed by the supreme council of the allies last night by which the reparations and disarmament decisions of the allies will be conveyed to Germany, was delivered today to Charles Bergmann, German under secretary of state for the treasury and head of the German delegation in Paris, with a letter of transmission marked "confidential." The letter, with two notes on reparations and disarmament, totals 2,500 words.

The letter of transmission, which is dated January 29, reads:

Letter of Transmission.

"Sir: The allied conference which met in Paris from the 24th to the 27th of January, 1921, has taken the following decision:

"One: As regards the disarmament of Germany, the allied governments have approved the conclusions formulated in that document, also attached hereto.

"Two: As regards the question of reparations, the allied governments have unanimously approved the proposals formulated in that document,
also attached hereto.

"The allied governments have on former occasions and again today, in consenting to fresh delays in the matter of disarmament, had due regard to the difficulties that surround the German government in the execution of the obligations which have resulted from the treaty of Versailles. They have formed the hope that the German government will not place the allies, who confirm their previous decisions, under the necessity of envisaging the grave situation which will be created if Germany persists in failing to meet her obligations.

Invited to Meet.

Qualified delegates of the German government will be invited to a meeting in London at the end of February with delegates of the allied governments."

The reparations note bears the title "An Agreement Between the Allied Powers for the Settlement of

Twelve Are Dead Following Blaze In Hoboken Hotel

Bodies So Charred, Many Remain Unidentified.
Injured to Die.

Hoboken, N. J., January 30.— Twelve persons were burned to death early today in a fire which destroyed the Hotel Colonial here.
Four others were badly burned and taken to a hospital, where it was reported tonight that they probably would not recover.

A stream of persons was at the mortuary today trying to identify the bodies of the victims. They met with only partial success, however, although police said jewelry and other articles on the charred bodies would probably lead to discovery of relatives of all those burned.

Identified by Wife.

The body of E. G. Snyder, Brooklyn, was identified by his wife after a friend had declared personal effects found on the body belonged to Mr. Snyder. A woman who was with him had not been identified tonight. In one room a man's body was found which later was identified as that of O. Frank Logan, 36, Hoboken. Another woman who refused to give her name identified the body of her companion, who was burned to death, as William Smith, of Jersey City. She escaped unharmed.

The body of Miss Daisy Grey, 27, of Jersey City, was identified as was the body of Miss Hester Peterson, 26, of Brooklyn.

Later a friend identified the body of Herman Linke, 49, of Irvington, N. J., Mrs. Schumacher, who was taken to the hospital in a critical condition, died later. The other woman in the hospital was identified as Miss Blanche Kehler, 38, of Jersey City.

Register Burned.

The register was burned to a crisp, and there was no means of learning the names of the victims until they are identified by friends.

One woman in the hospital had not been identified tonight, but the two men there were found to be Joseph Rider, of Jersey City, and Richard Dierksen, a dishwasher who lived at the hotel. Dierksen, it was said at the hospital, had lost his reason.

Investigation Ordered.

Bernard M. McFely, director of public safety in Hoboken, has ordered two investigations: one by the police into the manner in which the hotel was being conducted, and the other by the fire department to determine how the fire started.

According to a statement by George Groff, the night clerk, the fire started in a guest's room, but the man was out at the time. It

VALUE TO ATLANTA OF BIG BOND ISSUE SHOWN BY PASTOR

Rev. John W. Ham, in Sermon Sunday, Gives Seven Reasons Why Is- sue Should Win at Polls.

"WATERWORKS PUMPS ARE OLD AND WORN"

"Thought of Thousands Growing Up in Ignorance Repugnant to Sense of Fair Play," He Says.

Stressing the need of civic improvements, Rev. John W. Ham, pastor of the Baptist tabernacle, delivered from the pulpit Sunday night a strong message urging every loyal Atlantan to vote for the proposed bond issue of $3,500,000 on March 8.
The preacher asserted that "this certainly is a testing time for all who have the interest of our great city at heart," and declared that it is the duty of these citizens not only to vote for the bond issue but to do their utmost to persuade those who for lack of information, might be disposed to take up a position against their own interest.

The subject of the address was
"Seven Reasons Why Every Loyal Atlantan Should Vote for Bonds," and it presented facts relative to the schools, the waterworks, the sewers and the Spring street viaduct, which it is planned to improve from the proceeds of the bonds.

3,000 Children Need Schools.

"Three thousand children in Atlanta are without adequate school facilities," said Dr. Ham. "One thousand annually are added to this number. The thought of thousands of children growing up in ignorance in a city with an unused credit of $16,000,000 is repugnant to our sense of fair play and equal rights and privileges for every child of the commonwealth."

He showed how building of the Spring street viaduct would relieve the traffic-clogged arteries downtown; how the city is at the mercy of a waterworks plant at which most of the pumps are old and worn and have been mended and mended until they are made of scraps and parts that may go all to pieces at any minute; how there are 3,000 homes in Atlanta with no sewer connection at all; the existence of this condition endangering the health of thousands, and said that those citizens who vote for the bond issues will acquire themselves like men in a big, broad program of progress.

Text of Sermon.

The text of his address is as follows:

Reason No. 1.

"Three thousand children in Atlanta are without adequate school facilities; one thousand annually are added to this number. The thought of thousands of children growing up in ignorance in a city with an unused credit of sixteen million dollars is repugnant to our sense of fair play and equal rights and privileges for every child of the commonwealth."

"The greatest asset to Atlanta is its citizenship. This is recognized as far east as Japan. With a population of seventy million there is only 1.8 per cent of illiteracy. In other words, 98.2 per cent of the people of Japan are educated.

"There are nine million people in the Philippine islands with three and one-half million in the public schools. Forty thousand in Manila alone. Shall the children of Atlanta not have equal advantage with the child of the Orient? A vote for bonds is a vote for the children of Atlanta."

Reason No. 2.

"Our city is suffering from strangulation on its main thoroughfares.
It requires such a long, long time to get across the city; pedestrians, street cars, automobiles and all manner of trucks and horse-drawn vehicles use the same congested artery. Traffic from the north and west sides have to clear through little narrow lanes. It is stifling.
Commerce needs to come up and get air."

"The non-parking law is so liberal that congestion is unavoidable. The Spring street viaduct connecting the north and west sides throws all this heavy vehicle traffic out of the center of the city and into perfect geographical lines. With Spring street paved and a viaduct built the city will assume normal and healthy activity in the shopping centers. Every loyal Atlantan should vote to remove this terrible congestion."

Reason No. 3.

"Our city is at the mercy of scraps of steel that may crack at any time.
The only pump at the waterworks that is dependable is the Candier pump. The other two pumps are so old and worn that they are liable to stop at any moment."

FLYING GLASS STRIKES SEVERAL BYSTANDERS

Persons Injured in Oak- land City Were Waiting for Street Car When Hit by Automobile.

Seven persons were injured when a Decatur street car running without a motorman, it is said, crashed into a Peachtree-Piedmont park car at Five Points at 8:30 o'clock last night. At about the same hour four persons were hurt when struck by an automobile in Oakland City, bringing the total accident victims for the night to 11.

Those injured in the street car crash were:
E. W. Sturdivant, white, treasurer of the American Bakers company, residence, 555 Peachtree street, face lacerated, numerous cuts and bruises.
J. L. Head, white, maintenance department, N. C. & St. L. railway, residence, Tunnel Hill, Georgia, severe cuts on the right leg and possibly fractured knee.

Cecil May Galtier, negro, 50
Alexander street, cuts and bruises about the face and shoulders.
Bee Hood, negro, 201 West Peachtree, broken left leg, numerous cuts and bruises.

Perry Quaintance, negro 181 Mc-Daniel street, cuts and bruises on face and head.

Two unidentified negroes were treated at Grady hospital, but were allowed to go to their homes, without giving their names.

Care Are Damaged.

The crash telescoped the Peachtree street car and wrecked the front end of the Decatur street car.
Motorman J. C. Garrett, in charge of the Decatur street car, jumped from the car according to Officers C. P. Whaley, when his controller fell to the floor. The officer quoted him as saying "there was no way I could possibly cut off the power—no way to stop the car."

It was going then at a rate with nooses said of between 25 and 30 miles per hour. Conductor W. Kendley, on Garrett's car, was striving to throw the overhead switch over the controller box and cut off the current at the time the crash came, while women were screaming and men trying to make their escape.
Several bystanders were struck by particles of glass.

Strikes Car in Center.

The Decatur street car struck the Peachtree car almost in the center, the force wrecking the center door and causing serious damage. A Capitol avenue car, which was passing the Peachtree car, received part of the impact, but beyond breaking practically all the windows on the exposed side, no other loss was suffered.

The police made no arrests. Captain J. M. Holcomb, in charge of the watch when the accident occurred at 11 o'clock Sunday, said that he had not received a complete report of the collision. Officials of the power company at an early hour this morning had made no statement concerning the accident.

Hundreds of people gathered at the scene within a few minutes after the crash. Grady ambulances were called and the injured were rushed to the hospital for treatment.

It was feared for a while that serious injury to Sturdivant

Atlanta Merchants to Try Delivery by Parcels Post

Trials of delivery by parcel post, to determine the advisability of the adoption of this plan by the Atlanta Retail Merchants' association, will be made by eight stores, beginning Tuesday morning.

It is planned to deliver, by afternoon mail, all purchases made before noon of that day, and by the first mail of the following morning, purchases of the afternoon. As all merchandise up to 10 pounds in weight and 84 inches in circumference will be delivered by parcel post, in the event the plans are adopted, the method will greatly facilitate and accelerate deliveries. It is believed. Stores by which the plan will be given a trial are Davidson-Paxon-Stokes, Chamberlin-Johnson-Du-Rose, Rich's, Keely's, Regenstein's, J. P. Allen, Frohman's and McClure's. The postoffice authorities may be able to work out in their delivery schedules some revision whereby the purposes of the parcel post delivery system may be better served, by making it possible to have goods purchased early in the afternoon delivered upon the same days.

The merchants state that they are trying out the new plan not as a money maker, but in order to render better service to their patrons.

BARNESVILLE MAN IS SHOT IN QUARREL

Barnesville, Ga., January 30.—(Special)—W. W. Stallings, a mule dealer, was seriously shot late Friday night by T. L. Owen, a night watchman, the bullet entering the left hip at close range. Stallings had broken Owen's hand with a piece of a buggy shaft. It is said, and was endeavoring to hit him again when Owen was forced to shoot, according to a statement made by Owen, when he surrendered himself to the officers. Stallings' physicians expect him to recover.

The trouble is said to have arisen because Stallings took the 2-year-old son of Owen to Thomson yesterday to bring several mules to Barnesville, the boy not getting home until late at night.

BUGG TO CONFER WITH EMPLOYEES

Grand Officers of 16 Railroad Brotherhoods Here to Consider A. B. & A. Wage Cut.

With grand officers of the sixteen railroad brotherhoods gathered in Atlanta for the purpose of taking part in proposed conferences with Colonel B. L. Bugg, president of the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic railroad, and with both sides of the A. B. & A. wage controversy, expressing a willingness to meet, it is expected that interesting and important developments will take place during the week.

The statement was made Saturday night at Labor Temple by grand lodge officers that conferences would in all likelihood be asked for as suggested by the railroad labor board, and Colonel Bugg Sunday night stated that he stood ready at all times to meet his men or their representatives on questions that affected their interests.

Union Leaders Here. There are already a number of grand lodge officers in the city, representing several of the brotherhoods, and others are expected today. Vice President J. F. McCrary, of the railroad department of the American Federation of Labor, is in the city with R. Barr, grand representative of eight of the shop craft unions; A. M. Hull, grand chairman of the electrical workers, and K. G. Little, grand representative of the sheet metal workers' union, are on the scene.

C. P. Curtis, grand vice president of the conductors' union, spokesman before the wage board in Chicago, in the A. B. & A. case, will arrive this morning. There will also be international representatives of the other unions arriving during the day, and while no date has yet been set for a conference with the A. B. & A. officials, it is expected that it will be held within a short time.

With the union men expressing themselves emphatically to the effect that they will not accept wage reduction at this time, and with the railroad officials announcing that they have not been ordered by the wage board to rescind the order to cut the employees' pay, the situation gathers added interest each day.

Conference Suggested. The order handed down by the railroad labor board declares that no change of any kind shall be made in the matter pending a hearing of the case on February 10, except by agreement between the officials and the employees of the A. B. & A. railroad. The board also suggests that the opposing parties get together in an effort to reach a settlement of the dispute.

This order, saying there shall be no change of any kind, except by agreement between the parties, is interpreted by the railroad officials to mean that the thirty days' notice given the employees of a wage cut of February 1 shall not be withdrawn. The employees requested the railroad wage board expressly, it was pointed out, to direct the railroad officials to rescind this notice, but the request was not granted.

It was stated by Colonel Bugg that the letters giving a thirty days' notice of the proposed cut will not be withdrawn, but he would make no statement Sunday night as to the reduced wage going into effect on the first of February or as to what his position would be should the wage board rule against the road after the hearing that begins on February 10. He has repeatedly refused, however, as saying that the wage cut would have to go into effect, however, because of the road's inability to pay the present wage. The employees are equally emphatic in statements they have made against accepting wage reduction.

Will Not Lose Pay. Whether or not the wage cut announced for February goes into effect February 1, it is pointed out that the pay rolls of the company are not made up until the 15th of the month, and that the men will not lose any pay by awaiting the hearing of the railroad labor board. But should the ruling go against the men, it is understood that the cut will be retroactive to the 1st of February.

Both sides of the controversy seem determined in their efforts to maintain their respective positions, and it is understood that a great mass of evidence is being prepared to be presented before the railroad wage board when the A. B. & A. case comes up in Chicago February 10.

The standard railroad unions involved in the A. B. & A. wage fight, in addition to other employees not members of unions, are:

Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Order of Railway Conductors, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, Order of Railroad Telegraphers, Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees, Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America, Amalgamated Metal Workers' International Alliance, International Association of Machinists, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths, Drop Forgers and Helpers of America, International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Iron Ship Builders and Helpers of America, United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers, and Railway Employees' Department of the American Federation of Labor.

of way employees; 50,000 firemen and others and 230,000 clerks in all departments now working under national agreements still in force from the government railroad administration.

Say Wages Unjustified. The carriers insist that "these agreements are responsible for unjustified wages paid employees in all of these departments; that the disbursement of all money in shops has decreased efficiency from 25 to 40 per cent; and that these conditions are a contributory factor of importance in the unfavorable balance sheets now said to exist on all railroads."

Chairman Cuyler is said to ask that each road be allowed to drop out of the list of employees, as contracts with the standard brotherhoods are now drawn and in force.

To Conciliate Case. Hearings on this question have been in progress for several weeks and the statement to be made by Chairman Cuyler will conclude the case of the carriers.

Following, the representatives of the employees will have their say. They are expected to come before the board with a case as carefully prepared as the railroads have presented; and the burden of which is expected to be that living costs have been reduced so immaterially that wage reductions are not to be thought of; and that the condition of the railroads financially is due not to excessive labor costs but to business deflation.

Memorial Services By Congress Honor Senator Bankhead

Late Alabama Senator Eulogized by Both Democrats and Republicans.

Washington, January 30.—Memorial services in honor of the late Senator John Hollis Bankhead, of Alabama, were held in the house of representatives today, in which tributes to his record as a citizen, soldier and statesman were paid by democrats and republicans alike. No man ever served in congress with more determination to do good for all the people," declared Representative Madden, republican, Illinois. Recalling the late senator's service of twenty years in the house and thirteen in the senate, Madden said he never lost sight of the people as the rulers and "never assumed that public place gave him superior rights." His life, Mr. Madden said, was one of patriotism and he was "always attentive to duty."

Record as Soldier. The record of Senator Bankhead as a Confederate soldier, his service in both branches of the Alabama legislature and in congress "speak for themselves," declared Representative Lott, democrat, Alabama. "No man ever fulfilled a trust with greater faithfulness or more single devotion to duty," Representative Dent added.

Good roads stand as a monument to his memory, asserted Representative Bell, democrat, Georgia, adding that Senator Bankhead was constantly striving to do something which would be of lasting good to all the people. Representative Greene, republican, Massachusetts, who served in the house with the late senator, said his was a "long and useful life."

Character Praised. The "high character and great achievement" of Senator Bankhead's life, was praised by Representative Almon, democrat, Alabama. "He was a commanding figure, with a mental equipment to match," Mr. Almon declared. "Alabama has furnished many men of renown in the affairs of the nation, but none more beloved by her people than John Hollis Bankhead."

Representative Stearnson, republican, Minnesota, recalling his service with the late senator in the house, said he "knew and admired him." He paid tribute to his "broadness of view and soundness of judgment."

Last Confederate Senator. Reference was made by a number of speakers to the military record of Senator Bankhead, who as a Confederate soldier, served throughout the conflict, was wounded three times, once while leading the Sixteenth Alabama regiment in a charge at Chickamauga. He was the last Confederate veteran to occupy a seat in the United States senate.

Other speakers today included: Representative Small, democrat, North Carolina, and other members of the Alabama delegation. Resolutions of appreciation of the life of Senator Bankhead were adopted by the house on motion of Representative Dent.

Mrs. Bankhead, wife of the late senator, and members of the family occupied seats in the gallery. Representative Blackburn, of Alabama, presided.

Lecturer—Yes, my friends, in children human life is considered of very little value. Indeed, if a wealthy Chinaman is condemned to death, he can easily hire another to die for him. In fact, many poor fellows get their living by acting as substitutes.

YOUR INVISIBLE GUEST

A Wife and Husband Save One Hundred Lives

"THOU PREPAREST A TABLE BEFORE ME"

"The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want"—

Did you learn those words at your mother's knee?

Today at dinner, recall the whole Psalm, and when you say: "Thou preparest a table before me,"

Ask yourself—

"Can I, with enough to spare to save starving children, sit here alone, or only with my own, at such a table, my table, and leave the children of others to die of hunger?"

You cannot do it.

You will know and own the truth that—

When God gives you more than enough to meet the needs of you and yours, He trusts you to feed the starving.

Shall little children, who, like you, have learned to say, "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want," die, or be crippled by starvation, when God has placed in your hands the means to save them?

Three and one-half million facing death by hunger in Europe, with their mothers, look to you.

Saturday's mail brought a check for one thousand dollars from a wife and husband in Atlanta.

About their table, every day this winter, will gather one hundred little "invisible guests," children whose lives they have saved.

Think of the joy in the homes across the seas, the mothers spared the agony of losing their babies.

Surely both your home and heart are open to these starving little people. You have only been waiting for someone to call and get your gift.

Wait no longer. Mail your check today.

Make the minimum one day's wage or income, and give as much more as you can.

For Atlanta to do her share, we should have at least four more gifts of $1,000, two of $1,500, one of $2,000, one of $2,500, one of $5,000, and thousands of lesser amounts ranging from the smallest to $1,000.

Last week checks and money came at the rate of $1,000 a day, saving 100 lives a day.

Help us to finish this week with an invisible guest in every home in Atlanta.

Right now—you need an L. B. Stock record

You need it to prevent being caught napping by sudden fluctuations in commodity markets. Prices are changing over-night. Supply and demand are uncertain.

Success in 1921 depends largely on when you buy your stock—how much you buy—and how much you pay for it. An L. B. Stock record gives you an instant, day-by-day inventory of your stock.

Take the experience of the United Shoe Machinery Corporation:—

Under the old system, it took four to five days to get exact information on purchases, deliveries, stock on hand. Today, with an L. B. Stock record, it is a matter of minutes.

It will pay you to investigate the L. B. Stock record. We say "pay you" because it will save you ten, twenty, one hundred times what it costs you. It is the most important purchase any executive can make today to safeguard his business.

A post card or a telephone call brings an L. B. representative to your office.

THIRTEEN MILLION STARVE IN RUSSIA

Economic Collapse of Soviet Regime Leaves Universal Suffering in Wake.

New York, January 30.—The veil which for many months has completely hidden conditions in Russia, due to the action of soviet leaders in barring visitors from the rest of the world, is being withdrawn a little by the conference, now in session in Paris, of the Russian constituent assembly.

The prominent exiled Russians who opposed the rule of Lenin and Trotsky are now submerging their differences in an effort to present a united front against bolshevism. They are disclosing in Paris reports from associates still in Russia picturing conditions not before clearly presented to the world, which has wondered what was going on under the greatest of all communist experiments. These reports are being received by cable by A. J. Sack, director of the Russian information bureau, who is the authorized spokesman in this country of all the Russian elements opposed to bolshevism attending the Paris conference. In a statement today summing up the reports which have reached him, Mr. Sack explains why the conference is to be regarded as an event of international importance and incidentally he discloses for the first time that there is a famine in Russian villages this winter probably not less acute than in China.

"Thirteen million people have begun to suffer acute starvation this January," he said, "and seven million already in December of the past year."

On the basis of the data he has submitted, he declares on behalf of his associates that the downfall of bolshevism is inevitable.

His statement says in part: "The situation within bolshevism Russia is critical. The economic life of the country is destroyed, according to the official bolshevik official data. According to No. 256 of the official bolshevik daily, Pravda, which contains a comparative table of manufacturing outputs for the first half of the year of 1920, as compared with corresponding period of 1914, the present output of iron in bolshevik Russia is only 12 per cent of the output before the war; steel, 4 per cent; cotton, 20 per cent; coal, 25 per cent. The area under cultivation is only 34 per cent as compared with land cultivated in 1914.

Famine Universal.

"This winter not only the Russian cities and towns, but the Russian villages as well, are going through the torments of starvation. This is due not only to the decreased area of land under cultivation, but also to the total crop failure in central provinces of Russia. According to Pravda, there are six provinces (Vitebsk, Pskov, Riazan, Nijni-Novgorod and Perm) where only 10 per cent of the minimum of required grains have been harvested, while in four provinces (Vladimir, Kostroma, Novgorod and Tula) only 25 per cent of the required products have been gathered. That means that thirteen million people have begun to suffer acute starvation this January, and seven million already in December of the past year. The famine in Russia this winter is probably not less acute than in China.

"The bolshevik regime is both a political and economic failure, and its down fall may be expected at any moment. After that Russia may plunge into complete anarchy. If this will happen the Russian crisis will last for many years, keeping all Europe and the rest of the world in a state of alarm."

world under great strain, and preventing everywhere the return to normal economic and political conditions.

For Speedy Recuperation.

"It is of importance, therefore, for the entire world that the downfall of bolshevism in Russia should not mark an increase of anarchy in the country, but, on the contrary, should stir up processes that would bring about speedy political and economic recuperation of Russia. This is possible only on two conditions: First, that the Russian democratic forces should be properly organized and ready to work at the time Russia opens for their activity, and the other is that the world should realize the realization that the Russian problem is the central European and, therefore, the central world problem of today, and that the forces that work for Russia's regeneration should be given all the moral and material support they need for the successful fulfillment of the great task before them."

The importance of the present Russian conference in Paris is in that it lays the foundation for unity of all the Russian democratic forces opposed to bolshevism, and that it secures for them a sympathy and co-operation of the international democratic forces.

"We look upon this conference with great hopes, trusting that it opens the way for Russia's and the world's regeneration."

707 Children Who Committed Suicide.

New York, January 30.—Suicides in the United States during the year of 1920 numbered 6,171, including 707 children, according to the Bureau of Census, which today announced the figures.

The increase in the number of suicides was due to a number of factors, including the economic depression, the war, and the influenza epidemic. The highest number of suicides was recorded in the month of December, with 617 deaths.

The highest number of suicides was recorded in the month of December, with 617 deaths. The lowest number was recorded in the month of January, with 48 deaths.

FOREIGN TRADE BANK OPENS STOCK SALES

BY ROBERT J. BENDER,
United News Staff Correspondent.

New York, January 30.—The banking and business world Monday welcomed the opening of the Foreign Trade Bank, which today began stock sales.

The bank, which has a capital of $100,000,000 in cash to make possible at least a billion dollars for foreign credits.

It is the first of the new Foreign Trade Financing corporation, brought into being to break the threatened paralysis of our international trade.

It is one of the biggest canvassing campaigns for funds launched since the war. The $100,000,000 is for capital stock in the corporation, organization of which will permit of extending at least a billion dollars in long-term credits to foreign customers of America.

A prospectus of the new "help America" corporation has been sent to the 30,000 banks in the country and Monday it will be relayed by these banks to manufacturers and producers, financiers and labor men, all of whom are to be solicited for contributions to stock in the new institution.

AFTER KILLING
IN TENNESSEE

Chattanooga, Tenn., January 30.—According to information reaching here from Benton, Tenn., today, another chapter was added to the mountain tragedy in which Deputy Sheriff Tucker Headrick was shot to death and Bob McCamey, one of his assailants, was seriously wounded a week ago in an affray at Co-nasagusa, when M. V. Davis, member of the Polk county court, and Clarence McCamey, the helper in the murder of the officer, after a preliminary hearing.

The trouble occurred at a dance when Deputy Headrick attempted to arrest Bob McCamey. According to the evidence produced at the hearing, Headrick had arrested three men, one of whom escaped, and while he was attempting to handcuff Bob McCamey, Davis and others came up and Davis shot the officer, who after receiving a death wound in turn shot Bob McCamey. The trial of Bob McCamey was postponed on account of his wounds. Davis was fixed at $10,000.

NCE to every man and woman there comes the vision of a HOME. Each room is definite in our mind's eye, we see each detail clearly.

The green lawn, the deep porch, the beautiful doorway. And then the long hallway, dim and cool with the stairs winding up.

The Dining Room with its cozy, inviting table, its dignified sideboard glittering with silver and glassware, its china closet rich with handsome china.

The Living Room inviting one to rest with deep chairs and comfortable lights, for we usually see our Living Room as evening falls.

The Library with its air of businesslike comfort where old friends people the book shelves. The massive, long table with a deep, comfortable sofa in front of a grate fire, for our Library seems always to appear when the chill of winter is in the air.

The Bedrooms, cool, white beds, smart dressing table, a chiffonier that gives the assurance of plenty of drawer room for His things.

The Nursery where a tiny cot is the chief attraction, with soft rugs on the floor, a frieze of Mother Goose Rhymes in pictures on the wall.

And there is a nook under the stairs where a Cedar Chest just fits in. Here we keep the linens for the Dining Room so that they are fragrant with the appetizing odor of the forest when we have guests.

The Sun Parlor for relaxation with its wicker Chaise Lounge and its pretty fern boxes, its dainty window draperies. Oh, this is our Castle in Spain, the House of Dreams.

AND IT IS WITH THE UTMOST PLEASURE WE ANNOUNCE THESE SUBSTANTIAL REDUCTIONS FOR WE KNOW THEY MAY MEAN THAT SOME ONE'S DREAM MAY BE MADE REALITY, THAT SOME CASTLE IN SPAIN MAY BECOME A SUBSTANTIAL DWELLING.

You never have quite enough chairs. When the unexpected guest drops in it is frequently embarrassing to have to use a piano stool and some cushions. This is your opportunity to get ahead on the chair question. Chairs of every sort and at very much reduced prices.

Bill Bailey and Murphy Are in Splendid Shape For Big Battle Tonight

Tonight's Program.
Opener—McClure and McGee; 4-round exhibition.
Preliminary—Fearless Ferns vs. Jimmy Conway; 10 rounds.
Semi-windup—Kid Karst vs. Jack Denham; 10 rounds.
Main event—Bill Bailey vs. Frankie Murphy.

Atlanta's last boxing show until spring will be held tonight at 8:30 in the Auditorium, owing to the inability of Promoter Miller to secure other dates there.

Every one of the eight men booked on the card are in the city, and the fight between Bailey and Murphy is now making Charleston, S. C., his home, being the last to arrive. He reached the battleground Sunday night, accompanied by his manager, Murphy is a well-built, formidable looking fighter. Asked what he thought would be the outcome of tonight's battle with Bill Bailey, he said:

"I can promise the fans a fight, for my part of it, I have heard so much of this Bailey, and I have been very anxious to meet him for some time. This is an excellent opportunity to demonstrate my ability to southern fans. My victories over Houck, Chip, Howard and a couple of draws with Greb prove that I am a pretty good fighter, but, of course, what I have done will not get me by tonight. I ought to stop Bailey."

Bailey Confident.
The Bailey camp was just as optimistic over the outcome. "I'm in great shape, as usual," said the Atlanta light-heavy. "I've never seen Murphy, but his record is a fine one. It has been shown time and time again that any man can be stopped, and I think I have a fairly good idea of where to hit him. I must win this bout for I have promised me a trip to the east to meet some good heavyweights, provided I beat Murphy tonight."

Interest in the three 10-round bouts is at fever heat. There has been considerable speculation as to the result of the Karst-Denham fight. They are fighters—both of them—and those who like the hard punches will see a pair of them in action in this event.

Fearless Ferns.
Fearless Ferns will find himself face to face with a man worthy of his steel in Jimmy Conway. The latter has not fought for several weeks, but he is in the 100% shape of his career, and is out to stop Ferns, the career, who shows signs of developing into a top-notch lightweight. Those who have not yet purchased their tickets can do so at The Ritz, Fort McPherson until late Monday afternoon, when the tickets will be removed to the Auditorium.

Tech Prepares for Tourney Team Has Some Prospects

BY WALLACE GEORGE

Despite the fact that the Tech Yellow Jackets got off with an unimpressive start toward the first of the season, they still have an equal chance with the rest and best of them to copy the old S. I. A. A. championship. Previous records and accomplishments count for naught this year in the southern circles, for the big collegiate meet here late in February and in the first few days of March will decide the winner of the title.

The need of a tournament as this has been long felt in the S. I. A. A. and when the plan was broached last fall at the annual meeting of the association in Jacksonville, it met with warmest approval. Accordingly, the meet was awarded to Atlanta and the dates and place of the association, of course, is eligible to enter and to the winner of the big event goes the championship having been presented by the Atlanta Athletic club, with gold medals to the individual members of the winning crew.

To Get in Shape.
It is the job of the Tech coaches, Joe Bean and W. A. Alexander, to whip their team into the finest possible shape and to train their men to the one end of entering the tournament in perfect condition. These games are hard-fought, and the team, and in that time the Jackets have six games on their schedule. In this first of the big events, they will have their big opportunity to perfect the team, improve the shooting department and increase their stamina that will be necessary to carry them successfully through the grueling grind of the tournament. The arrangements committee of the tournament announces that each team may enter eight men, which announcement materially aids the Tech team. Tech cannot be called in the quarter hampered by having only five acceptable players. The eleven of the big event goes to make up the Jacket variety are all of college caliber, and if Tech can play the eight best in their championship games, she will be amply able to stand the grind.

Right now the Tech Yellow Jackets will be carried on with the intention of trampling Clemson when she comes in for a contest at the end of the month.

BOB MARLIN READY FOR GO WITH BURKE
New Orleans, January 29.—Bob Marlin, American expeditionary force champion, victor of 11 out of 12 professional fights, winner of 25 professional matches, ended his career with a knockout, tonight ended on a strenuous bout of training, announced himself all set for the 15-round battle Monday night with Martin Burke, local light-heavyweight.

Boxing fans familiar with the style of both fighters, expect a close and hard-fought battle. Burke, with his long reach and accepted boxing skill, was expected to find a way to keep the hard-hitting Marlin far enough away to prevent a knockout. Marlin, according to his records, has won a great majority of his fights by the knockout route, generally in the first round. Burke, although he has withstood hard punishment in numerous fights, has not been knocked out.

Club Members Predominate On Track Team To Ask Early Trial of Indicted Players

BY JAMES L. KUGALLEN.

United Press Correspondent.
Chicago, January 30.—Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, supreme ruler of baseball, accompanied by Ban Johnson, president of the American league, will go to the state's attorney's office here early this week and request that the thirteen indicted ball players and gamblers be brought to trial at the earliest possible moment.

This information was given to the United News Sunday night by Mr. Johnson.

Judge Landis and Mr. Johnson, who with President John Heydler, of the National league, and the advisory council in baseball, are aroused over reports that the trial has been deliberately put off and that it may never be held.

Landis and Johnson, after a conference, decided to take the matter to the state's attorney, Robert E. Crowe.

Opposition to Trial.
Rumors have reached Judge Landis that some elements of organized baseball do not want the case to come to trial because such action might lead to the uncovering of more scandal in the game.

Judge Landis, for instance, has been informed that the indicted Sox players will attempt to expose alleged crookedness on the part of other players.

"I wonder if this whole thing should not be ripped wide open," the judge said, according to Mr. Johnson.

Johnson said he had heard that the indicted players intend to drag the name of Eddie Collins into the scandal.

"Collins is one of the cleanest and finest men we have ever had in baseball," said the American league president.

The report that an attempt would be made to drag Collins into the case came from a south side place frequented by indicted players, including Claude Williams and Joe Jackson, both of whom came here recently from the south to employ legal talent.

President Johnson said the trial would be held as soon as possible. "We are talking that way," he said, "and we are going to stick to it."

Purdue Too Superstitious Wants New Name for Vols

BY CLIFF WHEATLEY

Hub Purdue, the "Gallatin Squash," hero of a thousand mighty plowing duels in the Southern states, has recently selected to manage the Nashville team in the approaching campaign, has announced that he will change the name of the team from "Vols" to "Purdue" because of the "superstition" of the players.

The cause of Purdue's rather drastic decision is the "superstition" of the players, who believe that the name "Vols" is unlucky.

CHAMBER HEAR BOND ISSUES

Mayor, School Superintendent and Other City Officials Will Speak to Directors at Noon.

Today at noon the directors of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce will meet to discuss the proposed municipal bond issue of $5,000,000. In order that the body may be acquainted with the full disposition of the money, the directors will be made up of Mayor James E. Cox, School Superintendent James L. Mayson and other city officials.

The issue has already received the endorsement of the Atlanta Federation of Trades, the congregation of the Baptist Tabernacle, the Atlanta League for Women Voters and other bodies.

Want Bond Commission.
The League for Women Voters gave its approval to the bond issue at a meeting Saturday afternoon, and at the same time called for a bond commission to direct the expenditure of the money.

Following is the text of the resolution: "Resolved, That we are interested in the expenditure of the funds of the city for the improvement of the city, and we are in favor of the issuance of bonds in adequate amounts."

Gordon's Resolution.
Appointment of a bond commission to supervise the expenditure of the funds of the city for the improvement of the city, and we are in favor of the issuance of bonds in adequate amounts."

Mayor Cox has expressed full approval of the bond commission idea. He said that he would like to see a commission appointed from each of the wards and representative of the city at large to supervise the expenditure of the money.

Five Points of Powder Springs.
While at the same time, the city is in a state of financial collapse, and the city is in a state of financial collapse, and the city is in a state of financial collapse.

Reason No. 4.
"With an ad valorem tax rate of $1.50 per $100 Atlanta would have the lowest tax rate of any city of its size and in the United States. With the additional advantage of being the gateway to the south and west, it is a great city at a minimum cost to the taxpayer."

Reason No. 5.
The emergency method puts a higher tax rate on the taxpayer and solves only one problem at a time. The bonding method lessens the tax and solves all of the problems at the same time.

Reason No. 6.
The next generation will inherit the benefits of the present bond issue. They should pay a small inheritance tax. It is not right to require the present generation to pay all of the debts. This principle is sound. If the bonding method is used, the next generation will be an emergency tax as against the present generation.

stagnation and starvation. No loyal Atlantan would either of these alternatives.

Reason No. 5.
"The bond issue provides the opportunity for large property owners and corporations to share the cost in a community enterprise which means the enrichment of the citizenship and the expansion of the city. This makes for a better type of citizen."

Reason No. 6.
"Every citizen who takes part in this great constructive program can look their own family in the face and say I voted for our future and the future of our city. I voted for our child and every child in the city."

Reason No. 7.
"Every loyal Atlantan can vote for the bond issue because the city council will authorize the appointment of a bond commission, sufficiently representative to include every ward and several business men at large to have charge of the money and all expenditures."

Reason No. 8.
"This commission will hold public meetings and keep all records open to public inspection, thereby preventing any unwise expenditures, or the possibility of unfaithful disbursement of the money. The establishment of this commission will inspire public confidence and insure wise and judicious administration."

Reason No. 9.
"This commission will keep in its employ a competent inspector to require all contractors to be under bond to insure standard grade work with a competent inspector. Each department requiring the contractors to live up to specifications. With these provisions, the city will have insurance enough for every loyal Atlantan to not only vote for the bond issue, but to vote for the bond issue."

Reason No. 10.
"As I see it a voter cannot be loyal to Atlanta and vote against the bond issue. It is a test of the testing time for all who have the interests of our great city at heart. Let us have a big, broad program of progress, and let us have a big, broad program of progress."

Fixed the figure at $15,000,000,000, or thereabouts, made provision for first payments to be delayed for four or five years and the payments then spread over a period that would be sufficient to pay the sum of about $25,000,000,000.

DOUBTS GERMAN ABILITY TO PAY

Minister of Foreign Affairs at Berlin Says Germany Would Pay If She Could.

BY JOHN GRAUDENZ.
United News Staff Correspondent.
Berlin, January 30.—Can Germany pay the forty-two annuities aggregating two hundred and twenty-five billion marks, gold, and the 12 per cent tax on her exports that the allies purpose to exact from her as the price of repairing the war damage?

She would pay if she could, but Dr. von Simons, the minister of foreign affairs, expressed to the United News today his very serious doubts that she can.

"I cannot emphasize too strongly the point that the sooner Germany knows the exact sum that she must pay, the better it will be for all concerned," the foreign minister said. "For as long as this is not known definitely the people will work in uncertainty—their energy will be sapped by doubt. They will reflect that every improvement they make will cause the imposition of a greater burden."

Ready to Consider.
Dr. von Simons was referring to the export tax in the sense that it will place a penalty on energy; that the harder the people work and the more they produce, the more they will have to pay their late enemies. The German government, he said, has not rejected the annuity plan entirely, being ready to consider any plan.

Circumstances Told.
"At the Brussels conference our representatives explained with extreme frankness and with the presence of mind that the exact sum of the reparations was not known. The circumstances under which our country would be able to make reparations were discussed. Very widely in the press, but those five points we did not stipulate. We have not made a demand for the demand for reparations. No, we stated them as the only economic way in which we could live. Reciprocity in this matter is as important to the former enemies of this country as to Germany."

Each of which has been mentioned and mentioned until they are worn out. The city's revenue may go all to pieces at any minute, the entire management live in daily anxiety, and the city is in a state of financial collapse.

Powder Springs Review.
Fred Haney, the demon cop kid, contributes the following essay on Powder Springs:

"If you have nothing to do at home and you want to put in your time, Powder Springs is the place for you. It is a beautiful town, with a fine school, and a good many people live there."

Five Points of Powder Springs.
While at the same time, the city is in a state of financial collapse, and the city is in a state of financial collapse, and the city is in a state of financial collapse.

Reason No. 4.
"With an ad valorem tax rate of $1.50 per $100 Atlanta would have the lowest tax rate of any city of its size and in the United States. With the additional advantage of being the gateway to the south and west, it is a great city at a minimum cost to the taxpayer."

Reason No. 5.
The emergency method puts a higher tax rate on the taxpayer and solves only one problem at a time. The bonding method lessens the tax and solves all of the problems at the same time.

Reason No. 6.
The next generation will inherit the benefits of the present bond issue. They should pay a small inheritance tax. It is not right to require the present generation to pay all of the debts. ## ERNIE CULVER WILL ASSUME NEW DUTIES

Given Testimonial and Farewell Dinner by Atlanta Friends.

Ernie Culver, for several years the ranking officer in the southeast for the Willys-Overland interests, will leave for Toledo Wednesday to take up his new duties as assistant general sales manager of the Willys interests.

Mr. Culver is a well-known automobile man, having started in the industry a number of years ago in a rather humble position, and steadily forced himself upward. It was not a surprise to his host of friends in Atlanta and throughout the entire automobile industry that he was chosen for this important post, when the times demand a man of more than average business acumen, a generous amount of pluck and a forceful personality.

Mr. Culver will take with him the best wishes of a large circle of the best business men of Atlanta—and not all of them in the industry he has served so faithfully and so successfully for the past fifteen years.

Given by Friends. A number of his close friends tendered him a testimonial and farewell dinner at the Capital City club Friday evening, and in order to show their affection and good wishes, presented him a beautiful silver pitcher. Engraved thereon was "To Ernie Culver, a Prince of Good Fellows, by Atlanta Friends."

R. H. Martin made the presentation speech, in which he said: "I have known Ernie since we were both very young men, and I have always been proud of his friendship, and happy in his success. Though I am sorry to see him leave Atlanta, where he has done his best work, I am happy that he goes high in a big organization where he cannot only serve the automobile industry in the south, but in the entire country."

In his farewell speech, Mr. Culver said: "There is nothing fundamentally wrong with this country, and we have before us as bright a future as any other set of business men in the country."

Dealer's Point of View. Mr. Culver's work for a number of years has been with the distributor and dealer, and he fully appreciated the dealer's point of view and his needs.

His parting word to the members of the industry in this country was that he should not forget their needs, and in his new job would ever strive to remedy certain factory policies, thus aiding the dealer.

To his friends in Atlanta, he expressed the hope that some day he should again be permitted to live here among them, and that whenever his duties would permit, he would return for short visits.

ASKS LIST OF CARS STOLEN IN ATLANTA

H. B. Dillingham, deputy sheriff at Asheville, N. C., wired Chief of Police Beavers Sunday night that two men had been placed under arrest there, after they had disposed of a great number of automobiles at about one-third their value. Deputy Dillingham requested the Atlanta chief to send him a complete list of stolen cars in Atlanta, and that several car owners might get their machines back as a result.

MEN ARE KILLED AT RAIL CROSSING

Train Hits Automobile at Central, S. C., Bringing Instant Death to Three.

Greenville, S. C., January 30.—Three men were instantly killed and another seriously injured early today when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by Southern railway passenger train No. 27 at a grade crossing at Central, S. C. The dead are: W. M. "Red" Anderson, 45, driver of the car; N. E. Strickland, 40; A. J. Sentell, 37. Injured, J. I. Miller, all residents of Central.

ATLANTA MAN ON TRAIN WHEN ACCIDENT HAPPENED. M. R. McClatchey, a prominent real estate and investment man of Atlanta, was a passenger on Train 137, of the Southern railway, Sunday afternoon when it struck the automobile at the depot crossing in Central, S. C., resulting in the death of three residents of that city, injuring another, and the wrecking of the machine.

Mr. McClatchey said that the track coming into Central from the north is straight as a bee line for several miles, and that it was difficult to account for the fact that the automobile was caught on the crossing in view of the long range of vision given the engineer of the train and the occupants of the automobile.

The injured man was taken on a special train to Greenville for medical attention.

Three Young Boys Of College Park Sought by Parents
Harold Wallace, Allen Trussell and Otto White, Run Away From Homes.

Atlanta, Fulton and DeKalb county officers are now searching for three young College Park boys, Harold Wallace, aged 15; Allen Trussell, aged 15, and Otto White, aged 16, who left their homes with but one suit of clothes and a few dollars in their pockets, and are now in the clothing store packed in a single suitcase.

"I want to find my boy before he gets into trouble," said the father of Allen Trussell, "and I am sure that if he only knew how his mother would feel about it, he would not have run away from home. I do not know why he wanted to go away from his home and his school, and the future which would have been his if he was in high school, and was doing well in his studies."

"I don't know why my boy left home. He is too much of a boy to realize what it means to us," said the father of Harold Wallace. "But his parents are so anxious to find him, that I am sure he will come back soon."

White said that he had been thinking of going to Miami, Fla., to join his father, who had expressed the intention of going to Miami, Fla., to join his father, who had expressed the intention of going to Miami, Fla., to join his father.

No Scrapping of Navy, Midshipmen Are Told By Secretary Daniels

Annapolis, Md., January 30.—There will be no scrapping of the navy, at least in the near future, Secretary of the Navy Daniels told the regiment of midshipmen in an address tonight before the Young Men's Christian association at the Naval academy.

Secretary Daniels urged the young future officers not to be alarmed at tales that battleships soon would be supplanted by air fighting craft.

"There is greater need now than ever before for a big navy," he said. "The navy is to the nation what the gulf stream is to the ocean. True, they are separate and distinct bodies, but each is a part of the great whole."

Red Cross Reports Work of Past Year
Washington, January 30.—Official reports made public today by the national headquarters of the American Red Cross list the number of "major disasters" in the United States in 1920 as 57, and show the losses in human life, property and property loss estimated at $11,250,000. Relief extended by the organization totaled $7,500,000, not including the special contribution of $500,000 expended for relief of victims of the Corpus Christi, Texas, flood.

A detail analysis of the 57 major disasters reveals an unusual number of tornadoes which occurred during March, April and May, afflicting losses in nearly 100 communities. Twenty-two fires, three explosions, six floods, eleven tornadoes, eight cyclones, storms and cloudbursts, five ship wrecks, two typhoid epidemics, three wrecks and accidents, one general relief problem, one grasshopper plague in North Dakota and the continuation of relief for the victims of the Montana and North Dakota, are named as the principal causes of distress in the United States for the year 1920.
